U. S. JUDGE HALTS RIOTING RENEWED 11 SUGAR ARRESTS IN LONDONDERRY

District Attorney Proceeds Sinn Feiners and Unionists Against Three Members of Boston Concern

Again Battle in Irish City's Streets

CONCERNS INVOLVED FORMER SOLDIER IS KILLED

T. Henry Walnut, Assistant United States district attorney, this afternoon authorized the issuance of a federal warrant for three officers of the brokerage firm of E. R. Sherbourne & Co., charging them with violating the Leveract. The principal office is in Boston.

This States district attorney, this afternoon authorized the issuance of a federal warrant for three officers of the brokerage firm of E. R. Sherbourne & Co., charging them with violating the Leveract. The principal office is in Boston.

This States district attorney, this afternoon authorized the issuance of a federal warrant for two nights of rioting, was again the scene of rioting demonstrations to day. The city was in a state of high tension, and bundreds of men remained away from their work, walking about United States Commissioner Manley issued the warrant and turned it over to deputy marshall Mathew Kelly for Immediate service.

Judge Thompson, of the District Court, earlier in the day, issued an order upon the district attorney here restraining him from issuing another warrant for the arrest of eleven members of the sugar brokerage firm of A. H. Lamborne & Co.

1 The affidavit calls for the arrest of Edward Sherbourne, president of the Sherbourne firm; Peter M. Levitt, vice Sherbourne firm; Peter M. Levitt, vice president, and L. S. Jolles, secretary.

president, and L. S. Jolles, secretary. They are charged with making an un-reasonable rate and charge for their rate of twenty-three cents per pound. sold it to a New York brokerage firm, which turned it over to a Pittsburgh wholesaler at twenty-six and one-half

The aladavit says that the firm of Sherbourne & Co. realized a profit of about nine and a half cents a pound. This, it is declared, is an excess profit and violates provisions of the Lever Seven attorneys headed by William A. Glasgow petitioned Judge Thompwarrants for the arrest of the eleven members of the firm of A. H. Lam-borne Co. The firm has a branch office here at 135 South Second street. The main office is in New York.

The eleven members of the firm named in the affidavit, which, together with the warrant, was turned over to Judge Thompson, are: A. H. Lamborne, K. E. Lindren, Nelson Keon, Girard Taneling, C. Trump, C. Riggs, W. Dyer, G. Logan, Victor Hess, M. V. Wood and H. B. Hutchins.

Mr. Lindren is manager of the Phila-According to the authorities Langhorne firm had refined for it 140.477,630 pounds of sugar here since January 1 of last year. The Sterbourne firm had refined for it 171.bourne firm had renned for it 205,745 pounds of sugar at the same refinery and during the same duration of time. It was said that the rueflery charged them about two and a quarter cents a pound for refining the raw

The district attorney will go before Judge Thompson Monday afternoon and argue against the restraining order.

Schmidt Denies Paying Graft Here Sunday morning.

worth of business at the new plant the

Takes Up Councilmanic Probe With Gordon, Rotan and Cortelyou

loors wide open for complaints from any public for the purpose of counding up ever he makes such representation he facts bearing on any scandal or any should be pointed out as a contractor attempted acts of extortion involving councilmen or former members of the

Councilman Limeburner, was named again today by James Boyd, president of the Pennsylvania Horticultural So-

Mr. Boyd, formerly senior member of James Boyd & Co., Inc., stated that "five or six years" ago, when Lime-burner was a metaber of the old Counthe councilman called and re-ted advertising for Patriotic adelphia. Limeburner's magazine quested advertising for "Patriotic Philadelphia." Limeburner's magazine. The Boyd Co. at that time was supplying the city with chemical engines, hook and ladder trucks and other Mr. Boyd asserted that Councilman Socoloski. Limeburner on that occasion was accompanied by another councilman who lock from whom he rented an apart-kept in the background while Mr. Limeburner did most of the taiking.

Although no coercion was attempted.

Mr. Boyd said he received the impression that advertising in the periodical would help his company in its contractual relations with the city.

would belp his company in its con-tractual relations with the city.

Councilman Edwin R. Cox, chairman of Council's self-investigating commit-wither and looked anxiously for their expiring gasp. Finally, on discovering

Alleged Pickpocket Caught

A man detected attempting to pick the pocket of a street car passenger was arrested yesterday. Julius Davis, 1628 South Twenty-second street, the prisoner, was arrested at the corner of also cut off air and crushed them in was put off the trolley, after having extracted $23 and $10 from two persons' pockets. When he tried to put trampled in the ground.

Such was the pathetic tale that Mrs.

By the Associated Press

There was stone throwing by the tilities broke out the police in the dis-turbed area were withdrawn and for a Cork, May 17.- (By A. P.)-Two thousand troops from England were landed at Bantey on Saturday and immediately distributed throughout West the trades congress, declared at a lano intention of establishing such a re-public as that in America, where the very idea of personal liberty was unwomen were sentenced to long terms of Dublin, May 17 .- (By A. P.) -- Counrick's division of Dublin, whose where abouts has long been a mystery, made a mandant's uniform yesterday at an open-air meeting in Croker Park in memory of the members of the Irish Republican Parliament who were exewhich she appealed for support for Irish industries.

March 12 raided the residence of Mrs. Eamon De Valera, wife of the Sinn Fein leader, in search of the counters. The police barracks in Gormanstown a village of County Meach, near Bal-briggan, were attacked and burned tract machine, which has set up as its candidate one of its own henchmen to represent this great district of manu-

Public Safety Cortelyou.

The Mayor announced the conference by saying it concerned in part "the councilmanic inquiry with respect to the acts of certain councilmen."

The pour announced the conference by saying it concerned in part "the councilmanic inquiry with respect to the administration is faking the voter. This form of deception may be practiced in certain wards where the voter is fighting desper
The pour anti-Vare forces are striving to repeat the chastisement given the organization last September, and hope to relegate the Vares to the status of more ward leaders. contractor combine is fighting desperit is fair that all voters should be noti-source against alleged corruptionists, trying to trade "influence" for graft.

A general invitation was set out to the state House of Representatives.

"No county officeholder is entitled to speak for the administration. Where their supporters will elect thirty of the supporters will elect thirty of the

Crueity to twenty-four innocent sunshine led to the arrest of Jacob that a sympathizing ray of sun had come to the rescue of the geraniums. Mrs. Obolock declared Socoloski took a long couch from his apartment and placed it over the geraniums.

Shade of the Sheltering Couch spirit as well as in body the pretty Obolock unfolded before Magistrate Price at his office, 4430 Main street, before whom Socoloski was arraigned and held in $300 bail this morning.

agent, and a contractor agent only, for he does not have the sympathy of the administration and cannot speak for it."

The Many agent agent only, for from all six congressional districts and mark Senator Penrose's second appearance before the voters of this city as a candidate for nomination as in the Third congressional and in the United States senator. His first appearance before the voters of this city as a candidate for nomination as in the Third congressional and in the United States senator. His first appearance before the voters of this city as a candidate for nomination as in the Third congressional and in the United States senator. The Mayor explained also that in the Fifth senatorial overshadow the others pearance was in 1914, when United Third district the Vare leaders were in political significance, States senators were chosen by popu-lar vote. Before that time the Legislar vote. Before that time the Legis-lature chose Pennsylvania's repre-sentatives in the federal upper chammasquerading by trying to induce the voters to vote for Charles Delany for Congress for the short term, and for

GETTING READY TO PROTECT AMERICAN CITIZENS

Delany Opposes Vares

Pare candidate. Harry A. Ransley.

Congress from the Third district, form-The ballots will be so arranged that they will permit a vote to be east for one candidate to fill Mayor Moore's unwords of the district against Ransley.

former sheriff.

John R. McLean, Jr., is administhe Mayor when asked about this situation. "They are in keeping with the many other tricks of which the contractor bosses are capable. Voters of the Third district will not perform that is not a candidate for re-election."

Irom the Fifth district, now represented by Senator Martin, one time city leader of the organization and now Vare specified period, any wage rates that may now be fixed by senator Martin is not a candidate for re-election.

the Third district will not perform their full duty unless they vote twice on the congressional ballot. They should vote for their candidate for both the short. for their candidate for both the short or unexpired term, made vacant because of Opposition for Costello

Administration leaders assert Aren Of somewhat lesser interest is the Peter E. Costello. Mayor Moore is un-proportionate decrease in basic wages derstood to favor Costello's re-election. were provided for, the employes would derstood to favor Costello's re-election. The biggest possible questions will arise. I am glad to bring this matter to the attention of the people of the Third district. They should be shielded against any crookedness in this election and limited the supporter of the Independent movement supporter of the Independent movement last fall, some Moore leaders are opposed to him.

James J. Connelly's candidacy is a result of this opposition. Connelly against any crookedness in this election and limited the supporter of the Independent movement supporter of the Independent movement arises. They should be shielded against any crookedness in this election and limited the supporter of the Independent movement supporter of the Independent supporter of t now the strongest men we can find for Peter E.

district. They should be shie'ded against any crookedness in this election and lieutenant of Magistrate William F. against any trade or dicker with regard Campbell. anti-Vare leader of the to long and short terms that will be Twenty-fifth ward, is expected to derive clearly against their own interest. strength from the Moore leaders opearly against their own interest. strength from the Moore leaders op-"I repeat that there should be two posed to Costello. This creates a sit-

Pittsburgh Asher Miner, Wilkes-Barre; Mayor Moore, Senator Penrose, L. Leonard Replogle, Attorney General Schaffer and Governor Sproul.

Schaffer and Governor Sproul.

Two district delegates will be named from each of the six congressional districts in this city. The anti-Vare "slate" for district delegates follows:

First district, Joseph Argenteri, O.

C. Carter; Second district, Powell The Independents battle to wrest control of the Republican city committee from the Vare organization and to prevent the Vares from naming the suc-Evans, Thomas Develon: Third district, ssor to Mayor Moore in Congress will

William Rowen, Joseph P. Bartilucci Fourth district, William Freihofer Fourth district, William Freihofer, Alfred E. Burk; Fifth district, Joseph H. Bromley, Harry Brocklehurst; Sixth district, Bayard Henry, District Attorney Rotan. Congressional fights outside of the

the Sixth.

Daniel F. Waters, proprietor of a dye house in Germantown, is opponing Darrow in the Sixth district and is running on a "wet" platform although heapnounces he will be guided in the matter of prohibition enforcement by the wishes of the voters in that in the matter of prohibition enforce-ment by the wishes of the voters in that international-Universal Service The U. S. battleship Oklahoma, lying in the Hudson river, New York, taking on supplies from freight barges in preparation for its trip to Key West for protection of American citizens who are in Mexico

R. R. Chiefs Favor

Percentage Should Vary

might award to meet the increased cost

Of somewhat lesser interest is the contest in the Fifth Congressional district now represented by Congressman toward the pre-war basis, a less than better and better off."

The new transportation act provides Whiter said, that any substantial increase in wages must result in increased rates to the public for railroad service. For every $100,000,000 adder to the payroll about 3 per cent must be added to freight rates, he said. Following the reading of the executives' statement, the railroad board adjourned until tomorrow TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES worth of business at the new plant the first year by transferring it from thickers and date, one for the short and the content of the short and dates are composing Alfred M. Waldron.

To see do not get here the proper transfer new powers and compelled to a handling shift of the content events and changed done of a handler shift of the head of the short and the cher for the long term. This, of compelled to a handler shift of the head of the short and the cher for the short and the short a

The 25,000 railroad men residing in the Sixth Congressional District urge all the voters to elect the following men:

For Congress Harry S. Jeffery

For Congressman-at-large Wm. J. Burke John O. Sheatz For State Legislature-17th District

Joseph J. Kelley Endorsed by the Fourteen Railroad Organization Joint Meet-

John Boylan, Jr.

Primary Election, May 18th, 1920

ANTIQUES

ENGLISH FURNITURE EVER BROUGHT TO THIS COUNTRY NOW ON VIEW AT OUR GALLERIES

1315 WALNUT STREET

WESTING, EVANS & EGMORE, INC.

DECORATORS

TO KULTURIZE NAVY

Declares Sims Is Trying to Reduce His Post to Rubber-Stamp Secretary

OPPOSES GENERAL STAFF

By the Associated Press
Washington, May 17.—Secretary
Daniels today let go a verbal broad Max Aron for the state Senate.

Mr. McLean has put up the finest sample of hand-to-hand and knee-to-knee political scrapping that has been seen in this city since the "Billy" Berklebach campaign of twenty odd years ago. It's been a regular knock-down-kill-and-drag-out since he first got his foot and his fist inside the door. Daniels today let go a verbal broadside against the advocates of a general staff for the navy, declaring they sought to "Prussianize" the department and make the civilian secretary a "rubber

He told the Senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war that 'one of Rear Admiral Sims's chief objects in writing his letter of January 7 and bringing about this investigation was to curtail the power of the secretary and remove the navy, so far as possible, from civilian control." "Running like a thread through most of the evidence that has been given most of the evidence that has been given before the committee has been advocacy of the general staff for the conduct of the American navy and elimination of civilian control," said Mr. Daniels. "Some of the officers have frankly avowed their advocacy of Prusa anizing

Was Told Where Power Lies About the only piece of advice which former Secretary Meyer gave Mr. Daniels when the latter succeeded him was the admonition that there were officers in the navy who wished less power for the civilian secretary and more or themselves.

"Power lies here," Mr. Daniels testi-fied Meyer told him as he pointed to the secretary's desk. "and it should remain here.

Partial Pay Rise derstand what his predecessor meant until a few months later when "Admiral Fiske and other disciples of the von Tirpits system of naval control sought to organize the American navy on the Sims's original charges against the Navy Department displayed hostility Navy Department displayed hostility toward certain officers and a desire to damage the ranking officers who di-"It is not at all intended here to say the naval secretary declared, adding that any wage rates that your board that "the evidence has shown a desire to discredit the secretary of the navy because he was not a "rubber stamp"

Willing to Face the Issue The witness quoted from reports and derstand, the preparation of half-sheet writings of other naval secretaries to show that they, too, struggled against egraph poles on prominent streets in substitution of the general staff system. Chicago during the national Republication of the general staff system. Chicago during the national Republican control is a great evil," said Mr. Daniels, "if it believes that the policy which has prevailed since the foundation of our government about he was a manufactured by the said Mr. Vauclain's spectacular the said of the said versed and that the navy should be re-moved from civilian control, let it fol-low Sims's lead, create a general-staff on the German model and name some von Tirpitz to rule the navy.

on Tirpitz to rule the navy.

"Let us have no camouflage about it. who know "easy" money for "cam-Abolish the position of secretary of the paign expenses" when they see it. navy or provide that some admiral shall I am constrained to the opinion fill that post with a seat in the Presi-dent's cabinet. That would be the frank and open way to do it rather than to put some Sims in control of the navy, with a nominal secretary as his messenger boy and rubber stamp.

week and commissions.

The employing barbers planned to keep their shops open and employ men without regard to union affiliation.

In the present scale is $25 a and Snyder avenue police station today. According to Mrs. Marie Rossanio, her husband beat her about the head on May 9 when she declined to sit down and eat some lunch with him.

LONDON, 1799

Fight on Mayor in Apache Style SPEED UP RELIEF

Should Have Widened Scope

discovery of phantom voters. As it is, what they have already accomplished is

A new scheme has been spawned in he brain of some one of Samuel M.

Vauclain's sporting managers down in Delaware county. Mr. Vauclain's head manager, the redoubtable "Jimmy Dougherty, has abandoned his expressed purpose of publishing a pamphlet on cards and posters to be attached to tel and chromatic boom for the presidency of the United States is slowly butting its strenuous way-through Delaware county. It is under, of course, the fostering care of "Jimmy" and "Dick"

I am constrained to the opinion that the Vauclain boom for the presidency of these United States will come to the same inglorious finale as that of another years ago Mayor Edwin H. Fitler, with better claim but equal presumption, had his photograph distributed like the leaves of Vallombrosa through Chicago. His name in large letters appeared beneath his picture, with the caption above "Vote for etc., etc."

Outside the great convention Coliseum, where all delegates might see, under one of these large engravings some pro-fane but inquisitive delegate wrote the

Charged With Beating Wife Charged with assaulting and knocking teeth, Salvatore Rossanio, twenty-four years old, 1135 Watkins street, was held under $500 bail for court by Magistrate Dougherty at the Fifteenth street distinguished Philadelphian.

Baldwin contemplate, I un-

Governor Sproul.

FOR R. R. BLOCKADF nonpartisan ballot the center of attrac-Two Local Fights of Interest In Philadelphia the real center of local interest is the Delany-Ransley fight for Congress in the Third district, and John R. McLean's battle in the Fifth Senatorial district against Max Aron for the state Senate. Interstate Commerce Commis sion and Carriers' Officials

SHORT LINES ARE NOW HIT

at Work on Program

By the Associated Press

years ago. It's been a regular knockdown-kill-and-drag-out since he first got his foot and his fist inside the door.

Absolutely fearless, McLean has gone after the intrenched power of David H. Lane and David Martin with the brass knuckles of cold fact.

Not since the old gas ring battles has there been heard the raucously defiant cry "Where did he get it?" And the faintly dying echoes continue to repeat "where."

By the Associated Press

Washington, May 17.—Members of the Interstate Commerce Commission today met with representatives of the railroads to discuss means of breaking the freight blockade. Primary consid. eration will be given to the railroads' appeal for help, filed with the comferences probably will continue for several days.
Officials declared the task before then was of such magnitude that a solution

the faintly dying echoes continue to repeat "where."

Mr. McLean has certainly mussed up the equanimity and savoir faire of your "Uncle Dave" Lane.

From the sounds emanating therefrom, it would appear that he has also gummed the works pretty effectually in "Dave" Martin's Nineteenth ward.

Harry C. Ransley started off last winter with the situation in the Third Congressional district in his inside pocket. It isn't there now. There is Harry C. Ransley started to the congestion of the congressional district in his inside pocket. It isn't there now. There is a frantic search being conducted for it by Mr. Ransley in the purilieus of the Liberty Bell district.

Charles Delany has been making in Charles Delany has been making in
Charles Delany has been making in Table plan to break the congestion. One of these was a general scheme for the movement of grain cars westward and coal cars eastward to meet current requirements. Cars for food and perish ables, however, would have full preference over all others under the rail.

Meanwhile, more trouble for the rail-road loomed in reports to the commis-sion and the car service committee of the railroads. Several lines, hitherto coaries Delany has been making in-roads on Ransley steadily and satis-factorily. The heads of the Republican Alliance are predicting Delany's tri-umph by a satisfactory majority. The Alliance and other friends of good government should have widened the scope of their recent seauce for the the railroads. Several lines, hitherto able to keep their tracks relatively clear, were reported as smothered under the avalanche of freight.

Chief among these was the Wheeling and Lake Erie. Numerous short lines were said to have felt the reaction where said to have felt the reaction. what they have already accomplished is praiseworthy and helpful.

I had the opportunity of scanning a voters' list in one of the precincts in the Tenth ward within the last three days, and the exhibit would have tallied favorably with a Coney, Island voting list in the palmiest days of John Y. McKain, when he carried elections on the names of dogs, tombstones and Jezebels of the curb.

were said to have felt the reaction of the congestion violently within the last few days. Advance precautions by the short lines, however, have staved off a tie-up for them several days, but its effect is now being felt and only local shipments are moving, according to late advices.

Toreador Killed in Bull Fight Madrid. May 17

Madrid, May 17.— (By A. P.)— Toreador Joselito El Gallo was killed last evening at Place de Talavera when dispatching his fifth bull of the afternoon's fight. He belonged to a famous hulldahting family his father belonger bullfighting family, his father being a banderillero, while his elder brother, Rafael, also is a bullfighter.

Fourteen East Sixtieth St. A luxurious Residential Hotel.
Dipposite the Metropolitan Club and Fifth twence Entrance to Central Park, spartments, single or en suite, for any tealred period. EAGER & BABCOCK New York City

SHIEDERS.—On May 16, 1926, MERITT, F., wife of Howard Shieders. Euneral services Wed. at 2 p. m. from son's residency of the services of the s don ave.

ATTICK.—On May 17. 1920, at his real dence, 4119 Baring st., PETER S, ATTICK, Service on Wed, morn, at 10 o'clock at the Oliver H. Bair Building, 1820 Chestnut st.
Interment private.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE STENOGRAPHERS, experienced, for and commercial positions. U. G. 1. ployment department, 24 N, 22d at. HELP WANTED MALE SALDSMEN
This advertisement is addressed to three particular men. They are wanted by a greating the sales organization. The Local Sales Manager is personally making this call forman men.

He will interview the applicants whose is ters indicate fitness. He will select the one who show possibility. They will be placed a branch where immediate commission is come is assured.

They will receive special assistance preparing for the bigger job. They will have constant association with men who have done and are doing his things in his box done and are doing his things in his box. we constant association with men who have and are doing big things in big bas. They will be given prompt opportus executive position, with unusual scope owth and income.
This is the serious effort of a strong rebis but he house to secution pay block with with

This is the serious effort of a strong retable house to secure new blood with which build. It means real success for those mylongs with us. It is worth considerating the highest type men as to character a determination. Experience in our line is resential. Write, giving some data of your straing age and phone number. C Wainut 3044.

SPRING RESORTS
Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa. LENWOOD Golf, bathing, fishing Bot let, L. D. VAN HORN

J. E. CALDWELL & G.

Early English Silver

Additions to the lists already published. Inspection of these and other interesting items of the collection is most cordially suggested.

| | Maker | Pieces |
|--|-------------------------|--|
| | UNKNOWN LONDON, 1817 | Silver-gilt sugar sifter. Chased grape decoration. |
| | LONDON, 1784 | Tea Caddy with lock. Fluted oval in shape with engraved border and garlands. |
| | LONDON, 1784 | Tea urn with two handles. Engraved borders and garlands. |
| | | |

Epergne and four accompanying dishes. Cast ONDON, 1802 and chased decoration; fully modeled figure graved border and flowers.

Sugar tongs, five and a half inches long. En-at top. Waterford glass liners. Drinking cup on tall base. Plain except for LONDON, 1810 thread band at the foot.

his hand in another man's pocket he was detected, the police say. Officer Proyana, of the Fourth and De Lancey streets station, made the arrest. He will be given a hearing today.

The firm of Sherbourne & Co. is accussed of selling 1000 bags of sugar to Harry Perloff, member of the firm of L. Brennen Sons & Perloff, wholesalers here, having purchased the sugar at the late of twenty these cases are the late of twenty the late of t where they will be stationed at points five miles apart. Troops to the umber of 150 also arrived at Skib-for the long term.

expired term in Congress and for another to fill the full term as representaelection to the mayoralty, and for long term which begins March 4 next. It is the long term that is to be of importance to the people of the Third district. To send an incompetent or

Strong Men Needed

"We have never needed so muc bor meeting in the city hall here yes-terday that the workers of Ireland had known, he said, and where men and imprisonment for daring to say America was not a land of freedom. tess Georgia Markievicz, Sinn Fein member of Parliament for the St. Pattheatrical reappearance clad in a com-cuted after or killed during the rebel-lion of 1916.

The countess delivered an address in recalled that the police

Election Warning Sounded by Mayor

Trepeat that there should be two posed to Costello. In the creates a situation of the candidate one for the short and dates are opposing Alfred M. Waldron, the other for the long term. This, of course, on the same ballot."

Only Board Prediction

facturing, industrial and patriotic importance,"
The Mayor in a further statement arned of the trick resorted to by some the Vare candidates who posed as Mayor Moore conferred today on the bribe scandal with former Judge James Gay Gordon. District Attorney Rotan. City Solicitor Smyth and Director of hibits their participation in politics. It is to be assumed therefore that a second of the Vare candidates who posed as "administration" men. "I have just issue a notice." said the Mayor. "to all officeholders coming the Mayor's jurisdiction directing their attention to the law which protein a state of the control of the c > forty-one representatives.

> While candidates are to be named "BATTLE OF FLOWERS" RAGES; SO DOES OWNER OF POSIES

Guardian of Back-Yard Garden Says Tenant Caused Twentyfour Deaths-of Pretty Geraniums , To be sure the geraniums would die, geraniums that rearned for air and the plaintiff asserted, Socoloski lay on anything led to the arrest of Jacob the couch when ever he was at home, Republican presidential nomination.

City Committee a Prize

and no one dared attempt to save the Mrs. Obolock also said that Socoloski cut down the wash on her clothes line so that his conspiracy against the geraniums might be carried on with-

Wanted Flowers of His Own Socoloski said that when he rented three rooms from Mrs. Obolock it was with the understanding that he should have space in the yard for his flowers. He contended that a tenant in the rear of the house, whose apartments were smaller than his, was permitted to plant flowers in the yard, while he, Socoloski, was denied this privilege.

Judge Price seemed greatly moved by the woman's recital of the slow death of the saranjung.

In the shadow of the couch which of the geraniums. "This woman was doing the best she could to brighten the place where you lived," he declared, "and yet you deliberately with malice prepense, plotted against the plot of flowers and connived to destroy them. Words fail

And then the magistrate held prisoner in ball. Socoloski says he Opposition for Costello Administration leaders assert Aren of living should be taken away again secretary. would be a vare-Martin mouthpiece in the upper chamber. Accordingly, Mr. as fast as, and in the same percentage McLean has concentrated his chappaign as the cost of living comes down. This mere contractors' agent to Washington to represent this most historic and busy of all the congressional districts of the United States would be a travesty.

Section and concentrated alls campaign as the cost of living comes down. This attacks on Senator Martin and on David II. Lane, leader of the Twentieth would be in effect to decree that railroad employes should remain in the ward, which is included in the Fifth Senatorial district.

The Governor also predicted sweep-ing victors for all candidates backed by the Republican League of Delaware be outstanding features of this election.

The polls open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Anti-Vare forces are striv-

to relegate the Vares to the status of Third and Fifth districts have attracted A fight also will be made to gain control of the Philadelphia delegation Waters Opposes Darrow to the state House of Representatives.

In the state House of Representatives ing Dr. Arthur P. Keegan in the First district against Congressman Vare; their supporters will elect thirty of the Congressman S. Graham, in the Section of the Congresm The anti-Vare forces are support-ing Dr. Arthur P. Keegan in the First Congressman S. Granam, in the Sec-ond district, who has no real oppo-sition; Congressman Gerge W. Ed-monds, in the Fourth district, and Congressman George P. Darrow in ing Association. district.

The primary tomorrow also will

ONE OF THE FINEST COLLECTIONS OF RARE OLD

DESIGNERS FURNISHERS